NOTICE

All students and their parents are hereby informed that, in pursuance of the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and as per the communication received from the National Task Force (NTF) constituted to address the rising incidence of student suicides in Higher Educational Institutions (HEIs), a nationwide survey has been initiated to gather valuable insights on student mental health, wellbeing, and support systems.

The Task Force, constituted under the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court (Judgment dated 24th March 2025), aims to examine the complex factors influencing student mental health and to recommend comprehensive measures for effective student support and suicide prevention.

All students and parents of Shaheed Bhagat Singh College are encouraged to actively participate in this important national initiative by filling out the online survey available at the following link:

☞ <https://ntf.education.gov.in>

Steps to participate:

1. Visit the National Task Force website using the link above.
2. Go to the "Get Involved" section and select "Take the Survey."
3. Fill in all required details carefully and submit your responses.
4. Ensure that the responses are accurate and complete before submission.

Your valuable feedback and participation will significantly contribute towards developing effective policies and support systems for improving student mental health and overall wellbeing.

All are requested to complete the survey by 30.10.2025 (Thursday) positively.
